Details: Hokkaido Ramen Santouka, popular around the world, has become a household name in Japan, where the CEO Jun Yoneda, was previously the Rakuten Eagles General Manager, a Japanese professional baseball team and frequently hosts athletes at Santouka Ramen. Santouka's $10,000 contribution will help diabetics around the world gain the necessary tools to monitor diabetes with access to discounted glucose meters, testing strips, insulin pumps and supplies.

In addition to the check presentation, Hokkaido Ramen Santouka will be announcing a charity partnership with TABLE FOR TWO during the month of June. The international non-profit addresses the opposing issues of malnutrition and obesity by providing healthy meals around the world. For every bowl of ramen sold during the month of June, $0.25 will be donated to TABLE FOR TWO who will provide a school meal to a child in need.

About Santouka

Santouka, which launched as a nine-seat, family-run ramen shop, has today grown to one of the most sought-after ramen restaurants in the world. Unlike other ramens, Santouka ramen is pearl-colored and served at the perfect temperature, (hot, but not too hot) to complement the many flavors, some of which have been cooking for nearly 20 hours. Available in 10 countries including the U.S., Japan, Canada, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines and Thailand. For more information go to www.santouka-usa.com.
